“ Dear Linda,
For the person you are and everything you did, I am forever grateful and thankful that God allowed our paths to cross. You are an inspiration not just to me and our Stockbridge community, but to the whole world. You were full of life, laughter, courage and strength, even through your illness. You fought the good fight to help keep our City together and never complained. You were indeed a strong woman. No more pain, no more suffering. I will forever hold dear to my heart the memories we shared. May your gentle soul rest in eternal peace. Amen

“ Linda was a wonderful neighbor and friend. She was a very dedicated volunteer last year in the movement to stop Stockbridge from being torn apart to create a new city of "Eagles Landing." Linda and so many others went door-to-door throughout Stockbridge and the surrounding area, knocking on hundreds of doors and urging people to vote against the Eagles Landing referendum. Linda was also a wonderful gardener and loved working outside in her yard, picking up trash around our Bay Cove sub-division and cleaning up the leaves and bushes at the sub-division entrance. We will always remember her sitting outside edging her lawn by hand with a pair of scissors and pulling weeds out of her lawn. Linda also kept an eye on the neighborhood and was friendly to everyone. What a wonderful person! One of the very nicest people in Stockbridge.

“ And she did it all with a smile and of course she kept us laughing. The sweetest person I've ever met! Thank you Bob for introducing me to Linda during the cityhood fight.
