Dearest Dad,

Today we say goodbye to your earthly body and honor you as a person, a husband, a father, a son, a brother, an uncle, and one of the most kind, loving, and decent human beings I've ever know. Mother and I miss you so much, but we are so thankful you are no longer in pain. I love you Pops, and I hope I continue to make you proud and that you are pleased looking down on us today when we come together as a family, to honor you.
