“ Sharon I sure was looking forward to our Jefferson Ave. Get together. We sure made some memories there. Playing in your back yard, helping y'all deliver newspapers, walking to Jefferson drug store and school. I'm sorry I lost touch after you got married to TJ. Just wanted to let your family and friends know you had a special place in my heart. Fly high my friend and neighbor. Robin Burchfield

“ I will never forget my cousin, Sharon. Her and I were just really close throughout the years and loved each other so much. In later life, we would sit back and laugh at the stupid things we used to do. She was beautiful inside and out. I'm not to say goodbye so instead I will sign off with see you soon in Heaven. I love you so much Sharon.

“ Dear Sharon, I'm sorry we didn't have a chance to get together, I was looking forward to seeing you and reminiscing. We had a fun childhood growing up, playing softball in your backyard and playing hide and seek. You will be missed by many, RIP.
