“ As many people know I am Amelia Rawls, Aaron’s daughter. I may not have spoken to my father for many reasons that will stay between me and him, yet I still loved and cherished my Father greatly. My Father always had a very strong faith in Christ our Lord and his passing was what lead me back to Christ, so I know my Father is in is heaven with OUR Father. We all love and miss you greatly Dad, sadly you are no longer with us physically but I know you’re watching over me Dad. I will forever regret not talking to you more Dad. I love you.

“ I am Michael Brakebill's mother. Aaron & Michael were friends from their teenage years. After Aaron's dad passed away, Aaron lived with us for a few years. I loved him like a son. I have no words to express our sense of loss. Aaron was at my house just a few weeks ago. He was there for us so many times during my husband's final years. I know he had a deep & abiding faith in God so I know where he is. I pray that God grants comfort, peace & many sweet & enduring memories to all who love Aaron T. Rawls & those Aaron loved. Fly with the Angel, Dear Aaron. Eunice M. Brakebill.
