

Aileen Ball McDaniel

November 2, 1928 - May 4, 2017

Aileen Ball McDaniel, age 88, passed away on May 4, 2017 at Jamestowne Assisted Living in Kingston with her family at her side. Aileen married her handsome neighbor in Englewood, Tennessee, when she was only 17, and he 27, after he returned from serving in the Army during World War II. Henry told the story of leaving for the army, and returning to find the little girl across the street had turned into a beautiful young woman. She was a lifelong learner, who finished her high school education and went back to school as an adult and obtained a Bachelor of Science degree from Tusculum College. She was an accomplished seamstress, sewing uniforms for Roane County High School majorettes, dresses and hats for other clients, making her daughters' clothes, and even a tuxedo for her son's prom. Aileen retired from Oak Ridge National Laboratory but continued part time work as a Public Accountant even into her 80's. After retirement she enjoyed traveling with Henry and went on several trips with the Senior Adults of First Baptist Church, Kingston, where she was active in the Young at Heart group. She was the first born to Glenice and Homer Ball of Englewood, Tn. Preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Mary Ellen Daughtery and Rose Ceila Neal, one brother, Homer Ball, Jr, and her beloved husband Henry McDaniel.

She is survived by her four children, Stephen McDaniel of Los Angeles, California, Julia (Raj) Arulsamy of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Keith (Dana) McDaniel of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and Rachel (Jim) Hayes of Kingston, Tennessee. She leaves three grandsons, Elijah (Katie) Hixson of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Ethan and Bailey McDaniel of Oak Ridge, two great grandchildren, Emma Grace and William Haddon Hixson, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and several nieces and nephews. The family would like to thank the nurses and care givers of Jamestowne Assisted Living in Kingston and Home Helpers of Knoxville for their compassionate and excellent care.

The family will receive friends from 12 Noon until 2pm Monday, May 8, 2017 at the First Baptist Church. The funeral will follow at 2pm with Rev. Jody McCloud officiating. Burial at Kingston Memorial Gardens. In her honor donations can be made to Kingston First Baptist Church Young at Heart senior ministry, or the First Baptist Church building fund 215 N. Kentucky Street, Kingston, TN. 37763.

“ So sorry for your loss Some of my favorite memories are the Sunday Afternoons spent with all of you at Mamaw and Papaw Ball's house. Aunt Aileen was a wonderful caring person. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you. I am unable to come home for the service but know that I love and am thinking of you all.
