

Alford Tate Wallace

July 5, 1930 - October 10, 2010

Alford Tate (Wally) Wallace was called home by his Heavenly Father, Sunday October 10, 2010. He was welcomed at Heaven's Gate by his beloved father, mother and brother Earnest & Vaudie Wallace, Sr. and Ernest Wallace, Jr. Wally gave 50 years of service to the Y-12 plant in Oak Ridge while also continuing his 26 years of dedication to his military career. He will be remembered fondly for his ready smile and willingness to help. His presence will be missed at his local Masonic Lodges, Faith Lodge of Oak Ridge and Union Lodge #38 of Kingston. Through his 50 years of Love and Dedication at both of these lodges he touched a great many lives with his faith and trustworthiness. Being Go-Carter with his fellow Shriners was always an anticipated occasion for A.T. He loved watching the kids faces at parades and the Shrine Circus each year. He was a member of Calvary Baptist Church of Oak Ridge.

He is survived by his sons Steve Wallace of Kingston;
Greg Wallace of Kingston, daughter in law Wynn Wallace;
Granddaughter Justina, grandson Matthew, granddaughter in law Grace;
Former spouse Elene Wallace;
Sisters and brother in laws Betty and Orville Laurendine, Mary Lou and Nolan Parrot, and numerous much loved neices and nephews.
