“ To have known your Mom, was to have my life touched by an aangel. The most truly sweet and giving person I have known. She was my rock when I began my teaching career. She listened to all my "problems" with her sweet smile and told me that I would be okay. I miss her already.

“ My sister Noreen and I lived with AJ and her family (Gielinskis), during 1945-1946. I recall AJ, Noreen and I marching down Reese Street in Buffalo at the end of world war 2. We had pots and pans and marched down the street banging away and making a horrific noise. The neighbors were all out on their porches cheering madly. It was a magical time and at that point AJ and I were close friends. Sadly we drew apart after she moved to Tenn She had such a great personality and I will miss her greatly. Tom G

“ I was 10 when Aunt Alice married my Uncle Bob. Ten years older than me, she quickly became like an older sister. I would come to visit Mimi during the summer months, and they lived right across the street. I loved to watch her knit. She was always knitting something for her family. My great grand mother came to live with them before she died and I can still remember her being there. Aunt Alice would send our family gift packages and she would always have a crafty item for me to work on. As my cousins were born, I was able to watch them grow and all the kindness she showed not only to them but to me also. There was so much love in their household. So many memories for me. I will always love you. Cheryl
