“ Some friendships never die, i will hold your "visit" we me always. You remind me of a song and a very poignant lyric comes to mind "it wasn't like you to leave in the middle of a song, your beautiful song" . If love could have saved you ... I will never forget you and I'm glad your dad brought you home where you belong . It's bittersweet when I visit with you to see the church we attended looking over you . Peace to you always my dear friend , I miss you

“ I miss you so much Amy, I will never get over this as long as I live. I'm sorry. I love you so much, even after all this time you are on my mind every second of every day. I'm sorry I wasn't there for you. I will never rest until I find out the exact truth about what happened to you. I promise.
