“ If I needed a hug, encouragement, or just someone to giggle about anything with, Amy was always ready to be that friend. I loved her deeply and her love for Trey, her family, her friends, and her Lord was evident. Such a good friend... I am praying for the whole family. I know she will be sorely missed but forever treasured.

Love you guys,

“ Amy was such a good mom, Christian, and friend. She helped me every year with VBS crafts and we loved to talk about our KY wildcats. I went to see her last Friday and, although physically weak, she was spiritually strong in her faith in Jesus. I will miss her terribly.

“ I worked with Amy several years ago at TeamHealth. She always had the kindest personality and was a genuine friend to everyone. One of my fondest memories was one year for April Fool's Day, she hid a co-workers wireless mouse in the desk drawer. She had such a beautiful spirit and she will be missed.
