“ It was a joy for all of us from the Harriman High School Class of 1960 to be reunited this past October. Andy was with all of us and shared his memories of high school when we were classmates. Youth may seem to pass but it really doesn't because talking with Andy transcended time and distance which is something friendship does. All of us gained from knowing Andy and I share a sense of loss in his passing. My sympathy to his family.

Sincerely,
Carolyn
