

Ann Ruth Rogers Robertson

April 12, 1927 - January 10, 2009

Ann Ruth Rogers Robertson age 81 of Kingston passed away at Harriman Care and Rehabilitation Center January 10, 2009. Born April 12, 1927 in Moundville, Alabama she was the daughter of Jack Neubon and Dollie McCray Rogers, both of whom preceded her in death. She came to Oak Ridge in 1945 where she met her loving husband of 62 years, J.D. Robertson, by whom she is survived. She was a Kingston resident since 1954 and a member of Bethel Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include loving daughters Martha McReynolds of Knoxville, Kay Bryson and devoted son-in-law John Bryson of Kingston, beloved granddaughter Leslie Quimby Westmoreland, her husband Scott Westmoreland and treasured great grandson Stone Westmoreland of Nashville, Tennessee. She is also survived by sister Carrie Hill of Greensboro, Alabama and brother Jack Rogers of Tuscombia, Alabama, one niece and five nephews.

She was known for her beautiful smile and her care and concern for her family, friends and community. The family would like to express appreciation to the staff at Harriman Care and Rehabilitation Center for their care and support. She was an extraordinary wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother.

Memorial service was held 5pm Monday January 12, 2009 in the Kyker Chapel with Rev. Doug Westmoreland of Tupelo, Mississippi officiating. The family will receive friends from 4 until 5pm Monday at the Kyker Funeral Home in Kingston.

“ *JD, Martha, Kay & Family,
I was so sorry to hear that Ann had passed away. She was a wonderful person and I will always hold her close in the memories of my childhood. I am so grateful that Patty and I got the chance to visit with Ann and JD last summer. You will all be in my prayers.
Love,
Pam*
