

Anna Faye Goldston

November 2, 1923 - June 26, 2014

Anna Faye Goldston, age 90, was reunited in heaven with her husband, Harley and son, Shane, on June 26, 2014. Faye was a child of God, loving Mom, sweet Mamaw, lifelong fan of the Tennessee Volunteers, collector of antiques, and a true southern belle with a kind spirit. She was born on November 2, 1923 in Robbins, TN. She moved to Harriman and met her husband, Harley. South Harriman is where they built their lives together and raised their family.

Faye was survived by her sons and daughters-in-law, Tommy and Brenda Goldston, Jeff and Janet Goldston, and Brent and Teresa Goldston; grandchildren, April Goldston, Rody and wife Eddi Goldston, Brandy and husband Joey Milun, Pace and wife Ann Goldston, Jody Goldston, Torre Goldston, Cassy Goldston, Whitney Goldston, and Jill Goldston; great-grandchildren, Ryne Goldston, Madison Oran, Tucker Goldston, Alyssa Goldston, Garrett Oran, Baylee Goldston, Aleena Goldston, and Amiyah Pass; special friends, Mischa Hallman, Ashley Thompson, Mona Wright, Betty Jo Turpin, Elva Silvey, and Gaye Gunter.

A Graveside Service by Freeman Hicks will be held at Willard Park Cemetery on Wednesday July 2nd at 1:00 pm with lunch to follow at Tommy and Brenda's house.

The family asks that if the Lord leads you to, please make a donation to Harriman Church of Christ in lieu of flowers.

“ Brent, and Tommy and Jeff and families, I just ran across your Mom's obituary. I can't believe she is gone. I have such fond memories of your Mom, she was a perfect Christian lady. My mom, Cricket Melton, thought the world of her also. I lost Mom three years ago. Be sure to keep the family tight, it's harder to do once the last parent is gone. God Bless all of you.
