“ Anne Marie was a student of mine at Martin County High School, where she played oboe in the band. I only had her for two years (1995-96), but during that time I came to adore her and realize that she was smart, sweet and fragile. I gave her one of my dogs, Baby, who I had rescued off the streets. It was tough to part with him, but circumstances were such that Anne Marie needed him, so I made the tough decision.

Sadly, I just learned that she was gone, although it has been two years since she left us. I ran across some photos of Baby, and thought I would try to find Anne Marie to see how she was doing and find out what had happened to Baby. Needless to say, I was shocked to learn that Anne Marie had passed away, and that her mother had passed away as well.

I pray that Anne Marie and her mom, DeAnn are now in the loving arms of our Lord and are experiencing HIS peace. To her dad, Charles Price, I offer my sincere condolences. You will remain in my thoughts and, above all, my prayers. God Bless, and thank you for allowing me to share music and life with your daughter for a brief time. She was very a very dear girl.

“ Annie,

We never met - but you were a very important individual to me. Your writings, your guidance, and your memory helped inspire me so much. Although we never met - I just want you to know how thankful I am for the life you lived. I wish I could know more of you, but perhaps someday I will. I wish you well, and that you're resting peacefully.

“ Miss you Anne-marie. You were a wonderful friend. I have fond memories of talking to you on the phone after so many fights my boyfriend and I had. You were the one to say to let go, you made me feel stronger than I was at the time. I know we drifted over the years, but you made a huge impression in my life. You were one of the first people to befriend me online and for that I am ever grateful, and forever your friend. I hope you now have a chance to rest, as it appears that wasn't something life offered you much of. I'm glad to know you'll have the best seat in the house to watch all that goes on - but I'm super sad for all of us, who can't be around your beautiful presence. God be with you till we meet again.

“ Charlie
My thoughts and prayers are with you and the family in your loss. I cannot imagine what you are going through with both deaths so close together.
Take care my friend.

“ To Anies family... Your girl was a friend of mine and always there for me, as i tried to be for her. Over the years i talked to her she told me about you all, and talked of the love she had for you. Nothing i can say will convey the deep sympathy i feel in your loss. I loved her dealy as a friend, a confidant and a true caring person that she was. My condolence for your loss. She will ever be missed, yet will live on in those hearts she touched, as she did mine.
