“ We were saddened to learn of your dad's passing. I know how hard it is to let go but know they are in a much better place. We've both lost our dad's and even though it has been a few years the pain of the loss is still there but we have wonderful memories and that is what gives us the peace to move on. We will continue to pray for all of you to find the peace you need to get through this loss. Gene & Robin, we love you both and are a phone call away if you need anything.

“ To my dear friend Helen and to the entire McClure family, May this time of sorrow at the passing of your beloved father evolve into joy with the reassurance in knowing that he is no longer suffering and that he is now in the arms of his Lord. And may your sorrow evolve into peace in knowing that he was dearly loved not only by his family but that he was also loved with the everlasting love of Christ Jesus. And may your deep sorrow evolve into hope that one day you will enter the gates and see him again in the Kingdom of God.
May you receive the comfort that only the Holy Spirit can bring as you go through this period of grieving.
With much love, your friend,
MonaLisa
