

Arvil Fowler

August 18, 2004

Arvil Fowler age 76 of Harriman passed away Wednesday August 18, 2004 at Parkwest Hospital in Knoxville. He was retired from Norfolk Southern Railway following 40 years of service in the Alabama, Kentucky and Tennessee/ Divisions. He served as Train Master in Harriman from 1967 until 1987. Fowler signed a football scholarship with Auburn University in 1946 & later signed with the Chicago Cubs & the St. Louis Cardinals to play professional baseball. A veteran of the Korean War, he served the U.S. Navy & the U.S. Army. He was a Life Deacon at Trenton Street Baptist Church.

Survivors:

Wife of 52 years Mary Ann Fowler of Harriman

Daughter & Son-in-law Ann & Sam Scandlyn of Marietta, Ga.

Son James A. Fowler of Nashville

2 Grandchildren Sarah Scandlyn & James F. Scandlyn of Marietta

Funeral 2:00 PM Friday at Kyker Funeral Home Chapel in Harriman where the body will lie-in-state for two hours before services.

Rev. Waylon Payne officiating. Private Interment.

The family will receive friends for one hour following the service at Kyker Funeral Home, Harriman.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Trenton Street Baptist Church, 519 Trenton St., Harriman, Tn. 37748.

Special thanks to: Dr. Robert Finelli & the staff of the ICU & 2nd floor East wing of Parkwest Hospital. Kyker Funeral Home, Harriman in charge of arrangements.