Praying for your family. May God give you comfort during this most difficult time.

Michelle Tipton - May 31, 2019 at 04:31 PM

I met Austin Couple of times and he seemed to be such a sweet loving young man. Always polite and sweet I pray that Brent and lyndse find the strength to get through this tough time as well as the rest of the family. Brent loved his nephew so much and they are in my thoughts and prayers through this sad time.

“ Austin was one of God's special ones. Always fun, loving, generous and with a smile on his face. I have never met a better young man. He had a bright future ahead of him and I was excited to see which direction he would go. We talked about this several times and he had such big plans. His loss is tragic and heartbreaking and he will be missed by so many. I pray we can all heal from this loss. I pray we find peace. I am consoled by the fact that he lives on through organ donation.

“ Austin rode my bus to school, he was always pleasant, well-mannered and always had that smile on his face. He could always put everyone in a good mood. He was one of my bus kids and I loved him like he was my own. I will never forget you Austin and I'm so glad someday we will see each other again.

“ He was the quite one of the kids. He loved his selfies always looking for a girlfriend. He had a big heart and in the end he was able to help over 120 people. He might not was here long enough to change the world but he did change many lives for the better.
