“ I am writing this for my mother Virginia Jones Monger, who is now 93. Her and Barbara have been friends since high school. I have heard so many funny stories of them growing up together. They shared a special friendship for many years. I remember joining them for some of their monthly lunches when they were both in their 80's. They had such a fun time. Barbara was always such a joy to be around. She was a wonderful lady and i know will be missed. Know that each of the family members will be in our prayers.
