“ Sarge - You were one of the best! I have so many memories that include you. Even when you were lining me out I knew without a doubt you loved me! You were such a godly example to so many of us. You were a 'Paul' to many 'Timothy's ' over the years! Thank you for being my 'Paul' and pouring into my life! You impacted countless lives faithfully riding the bus route picking up kids so they could know Jesus! You will be forever missed! Tell mama I love her. I just know you're shouting all over Heaven together. See you later. And one last time... I love you more!

“ She was full of sass and sweetness. The "sarge" was my church bus captain as a child and if you were under her care, she'd fight tooth and nail for you. She was tough, but she was filled with sincere love, gratitude, and courage. Love you, Sis Barb! Heaven gained a wonderful servant of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“ Barb - I can't imagine the things you are seeing today. Your eyes are whole, your body is whole. The cancer lost. Though you've sure left a hole in our hearts down here, I know you're exactly where you longed to be. There are really no words to express how much you meant to me. You were always a constant. A Godly example. A friend. You loved deeply. Though your journey here on earth is over - your new life has just begun. I'm so glad that I don't have to say "Goodbye" but only "See you soon." Rest easy now, Barb. You certainly deserve it.
