I am so blessed because you were my friend! I loved talking to you about Jesus, your time in Israel, the latest sermon on Sunday and all the books you've read. Going thrifting and to see your sister Betty Lou when she was alive and listening to you two talk about the good old days, I sure learned a lot. The hundreds of puzzles we worked together with help sometimes from Raelyn... I will especially miss your smile and hugs and the I love you I always got before I went home. Until we meet again on that beautiful shore, you will be missed! I love you!
