“ Betty was a first cousin to my first wife, Norma Jean Hester, but they were more like sisters. I never knew anyone I admired more for her common sense, courage, humility, and loyalty. I will greatly miss our telephone visits to chat about family and the Vols. We've lost a beautiful spirit in this life.

“ Mickey and I were teaching colleagues with Mrs. Dulling for many years. She was such a gracious and loving lady, always helping with anything and everything at school. She always smiled and made everyone feel important. Our thoughts, prayers and love are with you Neal, Cathy, Ann and your family.. She was a wonderful lady!
