“ Betty and my mother were like sisters. They grew up together and were very close. Most of my mama's happiest childhood memories were spent with Betty and then Betty and Joe when they started dating. You could be having the worst day of your life and talking to Betty would always make you feel better because her heart was filled with so much love and joy. I know my mom will definitely miss their long talks about the good old days and I will miss hearing Betty's sweet country voice whenever she called. Love and prayers for Joe, Brian, Bradley, and all the grandkids.

Love,

Andrea and Donna
