“ Jerry,
On behalf of the Strong Rock Christian School family, I offer our deepest and most sincere condolences for the lose of your mother, Betty Louise Yandell. As apples typically don't fall far from the tree, I am sure that many of the attributes you possess, such as your kindhearted spirit, your love for your fellow man, and the passionate way you serve your Lord are reflections of your mother and her life.

Know that you and your family are in our prayers at this time.

“ Jerry and Yandell Family,

Indeed your mother continues to share a tremendous legacy. The impact she had on those she touched directly, continues. Thank God for a Godly lady who passed on the eternal truths of God's Word. The heritage she established will touch the lives of countless to come. I am blessed to be one of those who has been impacted by this heritage. Our prayers continue for the entire family.
