“ One of the first people we met down here after moving from up north. He quickly became a very dear friend to my wife and I. It felt like we knew him our whole lives...He loved my adult kids and I will miss spending time with him. Prayers for the family. The Montefusco family

“ I know Jesus is really going to have his hands full. Billy Hallcox and Luke Jackson together again! Lol You guys keep fishing and telling each other how wonderful Jesus and heaven are. You both are loved and are missed. See you all one day soon. My prayers are with the family and friends of Billy.
