“ *To the Moore family:
There are hardly words to express my sympathy. Bob was loved by many,many people and will be missed. Bob and Jeannette were always so kind to me and my family and that was very much appreciated. My sister, Judy is his daughter-in-law and his family treated my family as his own. It is difficult to console the sadness at this time. May each of you take comfort in knowing Bob is no longer in pain. Those left behind are suffering the loss. May God give you comfort each day and with every tear shed send happy memories. You will be in my prayers in the coming days.*

“ I saw my papaw today, and yes he was passed on. I went up there and saw him three times. The first time i cried my eyes out, the second time i just saw him sitting in his chair putting some tobacco in his lip, and getting ready to go to the flea market, and the third and final time I cried again but this time not of sorrow but of happiness knowing in my heart that my papaw is up there in heaven laughing and having a good 'ol time with his family and God and Jesus. My papaw was, is, a great man that I will forever look up to that I will forever remember, and that I will forever love.

“ I am so sorry that my grandmother lost her husband. And a strong person to our family. He will be missed very much. As one of the first grand children to be born I rember so much. My Grandfather and Grandmother were very important people in my life. Papow will forever be that strong man that I will forever look up at. I know that the lord will embrace him as he should be. And he would want us all to be happy that he has went home! And will be wating on us all to join him.
