Bobbie Jo Clements (Woodward), age 52, passed away peacefully on Friday, December 12, 2025, at her home, surrounded by her loved ones. She was born on November 18, 1973, in Oneida, Tennessee, to Jim and Judy Woodward. She was a lifelong resident of Harriman, Tennessee. She graduated from Roane County High School in 1992. After graduating highschool, she attended Tennessee Tech, graduating with a Bachelors in Multidisciplinary Studies. Later, she received her Masters degree in Curriculum and Instruction. She spent the bulk of her career at Rockwood High School teaching various English courses as well as running the Journalism program. Some of her biggest accomplishments include partnering with Small Town Network to create a podcast and being an instrumental part in having Rockwood designated as a STEM academy. Her calling from God was always teaching. Through this, she developed lifelong friendships and positively influenced the lives of thousands of students during her tenure. Bobbie was also a devout Christian and member of First Baptist Concord.

Bobbie met the love of her life, Micheal Clements, in 1983, when he moved to Casey Road and became her neighbor. They started out as childhood friends, which quickly blossomed into a beautiful love story. They married on December 14, 1996, in Harriman, Tennessee. For twenty-nine years, through sickness and in health, their love only grew stronger. They welcomed their first child, Colt, in 1999, and their second child, Trinity, two years later in 2001. Bobbie adored being a mother and loved to talk about them to anyone who would listen. She was their biggest fan at the ball fields and in life. She also cherished being Bobs to her two grandsons, Beau and Boone, until her last breath.

“ I loved working with Bobbie. I convinced her to make the move to the room next to mine so we could talk every day. I loved finding out all the joy she had in her children and the new grandbaby twins. Before she left I would get an update every day on those babies. I know she will be watching them from heaven being their personal guardian Angel. I will truly miss my daily conversations with her.
