“ I was married to him 1985 to 1991. I really hope he worked through his issues when he moved back to Tennessee. I was faced with his anger issues and abuse for many years. He held me captive at gun point for two days, slashed my tires, stalked me, etc. I was afraid for many years that he would hurt me again. I realize that abusers can also have a side that is charismatic, and they are able to cover up with that ability. I pray that no one there dealt with the same pattern. I watched him stalk an old girlfriend in Harrimon and he told me he had to avoid the police because they hated him. At any rate, I hope he found some peace.

“ Lisa you know I have so many wonderful memories of both you and Boyd, as well as the kids and both families. I just heard the sad news of his passing. A good friend, honorable, and honest man. So very hard to give him up I know. Please know I love you all and my prayers and love are there with you. Call if you need to talk or just sit and cry. It will get easier in time, but thanks be to God you have beautiful memories. Love you. Faye Preston
