

Bruce Albert Murr

July 13, 1922 - December 21, 2008

Bruce Albert Murr of Kingston went to be with the Lord on December 21, 2008. He was born in Telford, TN on July 13, 1922. He was preceded in death by his beloved wife, Ina Jane Carriger Murr, his parents, Houston and Eliza Murr, his three sisters, Gladis, Della Mae and Lois, and his two brothers, Fred and Charles.

On April 10, 1943 he married Ina Jane Carriger. Bruce was a veteran of World War II, where he fought in the Battle of the Bulge. He received a Bronze Star for bravery while serving in Europe. He retired from Martin Marietta in 1985, after 33 years of service. He was an avid outdoorsman all of his life and loved to fish and hunt. He was also one of the first members of the Kingston optimist club and a youth baseball coach for many years. His greatest love was reading the Bible and teaching Sunday School. He served faithfully as a Deacon for over 60 years in several local churches. Currently, he was a member of Liberty Baptist Church in Kingston.

He will sadly be missed by his sons and daughters in law, Jim and Linda Murr of Warner Robbins, GA

Cecil and Teri Murr, Greg and Margaret Murr, and Gary Murr all of Kingston, TN.
