“ I loved Calvin Goins or as I knew him "old man Goins." He was the nicest person I think I have ever known and he was as country as any person I have ever known. I remember him cutting up squirrels on his back porch, cages with possums and raccoons and he always seemed to have a project he was working on. I know he loved his boys, Marty and Julian; but he also loved their friends. I will always remember Mr. Goins for his carefree attitude and his zeal for life. The world lost something special when Calvin passed. God bless him and his family.
