“ Coley as I called him was a blessing to know me and my husband thought a lot of him and Emory golf course will never be the same. Enjoyed seeing him and the crew Buster,, Benny,Karen,JT,,Gene,Cody and so many more prayers for strength and guidance during this difficult time 🙏 know that he is now free from this wicked world that we live in and know more worries. Also for Lisa the woman he chose to love and live with the last 11 years may you have peace and guidance in the day's ahead with knowing he will never come thur the front door again and know more hearing his voice. I hope his name will live on hopefully a tree will be planted on the golf course some in his remembrance. Rest high on the mountain Coley your work on earth is done.

“ Sandra, Louis, and Lisa, I know you feel the pain of losing David. I pray you can hold on to the peace that passes all understanding that only our Heavenly Father can give. Michael and David were good friends growing up. I wonder if he was waiting to greet David in Heaven.
