

Carl Robert Walker

August 2, 1926 - July 14, 2024

Carl Robert Walker, 97, went to be with his Lord on July 14, 2024. Carl was born on August 2, 1926, to the late Mrs. Mary Clark and Tom (TT) Walker. Carl was a home builder and master carpenter for many years. In later years, he still constructed beautiful furniture. He loved the Lord, his family and antiques. He was a member of First Baptist Church Sweetwater for many years. He was the baby of his family, consisting of four brothers and five sisters. Carl proudly served our nation in the United States Army as a Pvt. First Class Company C, 255th Engineer Combat Battalion serving in Italy.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Audrey Moore Walker, his siblings, Clyde Walker, Clara Kyle, Julia Kyle, Annie Branson, Lilliard Walker, Sally Sherman, TJ Walker, Ruth Russell, and Ben Walker. Left to cherish his memory are his daughter, Charlotte Starnes, grandson and his wife, Derek and Diane Starnes, three great grandchildren, Caleb (Blaine) Starnes, Parker Starnes and Ethan Starnes and one great-great grandson, Oliver Walker Starnes.

Graveside Services will be held on Thursday, July 18, 2024, at 10:00 AM at Edgemon Cemetery in Ten Mile with Rev. Clayton Dunsmore officiating. Kyker Funeral Home in Sweetwater is proud to serve the Walker family. The family requests no flowers be sent, in lieu, memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church of Sweetwater Building Fund.

“ I remember my folk speaking of Walker family through i never me Mr Carl but his grandmother Margaret E. Hughes Walker and my g-grandfather Thomas Tillrow Hughes were half siblings. Each generation more of our family history is lost. But GOD holds all our tears and they are in HIS book. So sorry for your lost.
