“ I automatically think about Nana and I going out to Utah, and Aunt Carol and I riding the bobsled. Everybody kept saying we were too little (and Carter said Nana was too old) and that it wouldn't go fast at all, but it felt like we were flying. I have so many good and fun memories of the times we had together. I will miss you, Aunt Carol. Give Jesus and Uncle Jerry (and all the rest of the family that's there) a hug for me. I love you.

“ A friend sent this picture to me. Being Carol's mother I can hear her voice telling me this. My love for her grows stronger every day. There will be a day that I will be reunited with Carol, and all of my family that are there with her. I will miss her, but I know she is safe and in the arms of Jesus. A part of my heart went with her. I love her so very much.

“ I'm at a loss for words. Carol and I shared a love for the mountains, biking and dogs. I was so hoping to see her out west this fall since it had been a few years since I last visited with her. Bless you Carol, I will miss you. My heart is broken.
