

Carrie Elizabeth Roy

September 1, 1927 - August 26, 2021

Carrie Elizabeth Roy, 93, passed away peacefully with her family by her side on Thursday, August 26, 2021. Carrie was born to the late Rev. John A. Porter and Dicey Walker.

She married her husband Clarence August 4, 1950, and they remained married until his passing in 1990.

Carrie worked as a banker for 38 years at the Sweetwater Valley Bank. In her free time, Carrie loved to travel with her sister Eva. Some of her favorite places to visit were the Great Smoky Mountains and Cades Cove. Carrie had a great appreciation for all flowers, especially the ones she had planted in her yard. She was an avid sports fan, cheering on her Atlanta Braves and Tennessee Vols. She was also a member of the First Baptist Church of Sweetwater.

Carrie is preceded in death by her husband Clarence; her daughter Elizabeth; parents Rev. John and Dicey Porter; brothers Walter, Wallace, Rev. Arnold, and Frank; and her sister Eva.

Carrie is survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, August 30, 2021, at Westview Cemetery, Sweetwater, TN at 3:00 pm. Services are entrusted to Kyker Funeral Home in Sweetwater.

“ Aunt Carrie was truly the sweetest Christian lady one would ever meet. She was the glue that held the Porter family together. I will forever remember the many Thanksgiving dinners I attended at her beautiful home. She was definitely a Southern hostess when it came to throwing a spread of food. The loss of Aunt Carrie will leave a big hole in the Porter family, but we can rest assured she is rejoicing with her family in heaven. We love you so much,
Sharon & Jerry Porter

MISS Carrie has been a light In my world since 1978 ,first at the bank and later as a client and friend.She would bring us her chocolate chip cookies.Carrie was a dear Christian friend. I expected her to be reading her Sunday school lesson while drying her hair. She will forever be missed. Until we meet again,Carrier's in peace.
