“ I am Darrell's cousin. Catina was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister aunt and daughter-in-law. She was always smiling and happy. A very thoughtful lady and would help in our family in any way she could. My mother called Darrell and Catina early in the morning a couple of years ago, to come and help her with my dad. They were right there, even though they had to work that day. My brother and I will never forget the caring that both Darrell and Catina had for my family. Catina's smile and caring heart will be terribly missed in the Voiles, Green and Pogue families. We love you Catina. Our loss is heaven's gain.
