“ What precious memories we hold in our hearts of Bro Charles and Mrs Lola.

Some of the sweetest people on GODS green earth. Bro Charles set a great example of being Christlike. Thank God for letting our paths cross. We are better people for having known him.

Our prayers and love are with dear precious Mrs Lola and family.

“ Please pray for Mrs. Lola Cassady.

Rev Charles Cassady, her husband went home to be with the Lord on the 20th of this month. She and Charles were such dear friends to me. They welcomed me into their home every Tuesday for about 3 years as she was teaching me piano. That was the first time. After not taking lessons, due to getting my Masters, divorce and teaching first grade, I decided to take some time as I just was not practicing my lessons. After about 3 or 4 years, I missed the friendship and the music so much. She welcomed me back. When I lost my vehicle, I quit taking lessons again 5 years ago. I have missed her sooo much. She is such a Christian woman and I learned so much from her.....more than just the piano. We would get started talking and before we knew it, she would say " Ill run you over 15 more minutes!" Lol. I loveddddd talking with her! She taught me how a true , Christian can endure and just keep the faith and keep going on. Charles and her had such a beautiful marriage. They were still in love after all those years. Their love was so sweet to watch. He would bring her a cup of tea while she was teaching. It would suprise her and she would thank him and just keep right on teaching. Ha. They had a nice camper and they drug that camper all over this country, singing, him preaching and just fellowshiping with the Lord. They have beautiful children and great grandchildren. I remember their twin great grandchildren.....they were so proud of them.

I know how much she loveddddd that man. She worried about Charles when his health started getting bad.

They had his funeral today. I just saw that post last night. I planned on going but to be honest, I just did not think that I could sit through the Military Tapp Memorial. I did not even realize that he had served until I read his obituary. I called Mrs. Cassady this evening. We shed tears over the phone. I knew that she would be sooooo heart broken. I think God is just carrying her right now. Please lift her up in your prayers. Charles would want her to go on and to continue the work that they did for the Lord. It just breaks my heart for her. Death is sooooo hard. It's hard to make yourself go on. She said that it was like he had been preparing her for his death and trying to tell her to go on. That gave me cold chills and I could not hold back the tears. Nothing can truly ever prepare you. They will just have to pick up where they left off in Gloryland one day. That is the only comfort that there is. I hope that I was able to comfort her with some words and I hope that she knows that I am praying for her.
