

Charles "Charlie" Baldwin Ingram, Sr.

November 4, 1938 - June 30, 2016

Charles Ingram, age 77, went to be with the Lord on Thursday June 30, 2016. Charlie was a long time resident of Harriman, TN, but lived, traveled and worked all over the world. He was born in Bluefields, Nicaragua and completed grade school and high school there. Charlie then came to the US and obtained a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from Christian Brothers College in Memphis, Tennessee. Charlie became a highly recognized Research and Design Electronics engineer, obtaining multiple patents and accolades in many industries during his career. These include, of particular significance, (1) receiving Inspection and test of semiconductors and other electronic components for NASA Marshall Space Flight Center; (2) state of the art advanced systems and components for air conditioning control systems for new automobiles; (3) Systems and components necessary for the stable operation of the Department of Energy's Centrifuge Uranium Enrichment machines; and (4) advanced systems for the conversion of waste to energy. He also became a naturalized citizen.

Charlie was a member and active Deacon of Riverside Baptist Church in Harriman Tennessee. He was a highly respected Bible teacher and an accomplished musician, always willing to fill in on organ or piano. He was a devoted husband to his wife Joyce for 51 ½ years and the proud father of his two sons Chuck and Patrick, raising them by example of how to be a loving husband and father. Charlie enjoyed hunting, camping and fishing and watching the University of Tennessee sports. He was an avid tennis player and student of the game. His main challenge was to maintain his game on the same level as Joyce. His grandchildren could always depend on his help with their homework. He was a patient man and was seldom seen to be anxious for trivial things. We will miss you, Charlie.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brother Ludwig and Sister Helen. He is survived by:

Wife: Joyce Ingram

Sons: Chuck (Nancy) Ingram; Patrick (Tabitha) Ingram

Sisters: Norma De Miller; Elma Monty

Grandchildren: Lisa, Kristy, Nick, Amanda, Katie, Mary, Baldwin, Jennifer, Hannah and Delaney

And several great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

“ We are honored to have known Charlie for many years. We will always remember his kindness, that beautiful smile and his sweet spirit. He loved his Joyce immensely and was always there to support and encourage her in her senior olympic activities. He loved taking care of her and being always by her side. We had no idea that our time with him last weekend would be our last on this earth. What a void that has been left for anyone who is blessed to have known him. We pray for God's enduring comfort for Joyce, their sons and grandchildren.

“ Many loving thoughts and prayers for Joyce, their sons, family and friends.

In my unique experience of working with Charlie, he amazed us with his insight, worldly knowledge, and theories. His wisdom was not judgmental. He showed a compassionate and caring spirit. The best part was his smiles and laughter. I always learned from him.

Then, we shared in the pleasure of my son (Clay) and your beautiful granddaughter (Mary) joining in marriage. We enjoyed those lasting memories and celebrations.

The best memory was shared in the first meeting of Lukas, grandson and great grandson.

Many memories to cherish.
