“ I just found out today. I didn't feel the need to leave a sentiment because that is between Chris and I but I changed my mind after reading through the beautiful sentiments left here by the people who knew and loved Chris. Please don't misunderstand me, he would be so honored by this and happy for his dad, for whom he had the utmost respect, that this is so nice and formal and to see that everyone held Chris in the highest regard as the amazing person that he was. I haven't seen or even talked to Chris in about 18 years which would have made him 16 the last time I saw him but I got to know him very well in a relatively short amount of time and I remember this about Chris: When Chris Ensey walked into a room it immediately became illuminated by his smile and the energy and optimism in which he was seemingly, eternally enveloped. He was smart and witty and a loyal friend who had a contagious laugh. More than anything else I remember about Chris is that he loved music and playing his drums and he was a phenomenal drummer from an early age - like a duck to water and his love and appreciation for it was obvious when you watched him play - nothing made him happier and he was the best and while I am sure he had no idea how much the time that we all spent together meant to me and had all but forgotten who I was I will never forget him. I want to say rest in peace but I know you're rockin not resting.

“ Crystal,, I was searching for Chesley and Kathy on facebook and ran across this notice of Chris and can't imagine your hurt. Chesley and I ran around the country working construction jobs together when Chris was a baby. What a great little boy I have nothing but fond memories of him. I haven't seen or heard from him and Cathy nor Debbie for many years. Please relay my condolences to all the family and may God bless you all. I look forward to a response from you.

“ Crystal if you ever look at this, or maybe someone can let her know that If you'd called me at 1931-456-6685 I'd really appreciate it, my email is also Themadisraeli@gmail.com if you decide to send me your number. You've been in thoughts and prayers and I'd like to know how you are doing. I've taken this pretty hard as well, this guy was my brother to me.

“ Chesley, I am so very sorry to hear about Chris. I would see him often at Roane State library when he was a student. One of his teachers told me that Chris and two other students were the exceptional students in that particular class. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ In every circumstance God is working on our behalf. We are praying that God will give your family added peace and comfort during your difficult time. "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them that are called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28 It is comforting to know you are in His thoughts every moment.

“ Crystal, I am so sorry to hear about Chris. I am Chris' aunt, even though we're only 5 years apart in age. My fondest memories of Chris are when we were kids and he would spend time during the summer at our house - he never came over without a large box of Hot Wheel cars.

I am so thankful for the last conversation Chris and I had because he told me how happy he was being married to you.

“ Dearest Crystal,
Having just lost my daughter to Leukemia on June 1st, I can imagine the pain and anguish you are feeling. You are one of the most kind souls I've ever met and I'm blessed to know you. I extend my heartfelt condolences and my promise to lift you up in prayer asking that God will give you the strength to get through these next days.

With deepest sympathy and love,

“ Crystal, you were such a sweet person the few times I met you and I was so glad Chris had you in his life. I know he loved you more than anything. I have known Chris since he was around 12 or 13 years old and he was always a gentleman. We loved him so very much and we thought of him as a part of our family. I remember tax time and we had a great time with the both of you and I treasure that time. Please call me any time and let me know if we can help you in any way or if you just need a friend to talk to.

“ *Crystal,
I will always remember Chris, especially on the day he helped me move from Kingston to Knoxville. He was so patient and kind and made the extra effort to take two trips to get me moved (when he didn't have to go to all that trouble).
I know he had to have loved you very much to have put up with me on that difficult moving day. I will always cherish the moments I spent with him and remember his kindness.
Please do not hesitate in calling me for any reason, any time.
