“ Christy and I were baptized the same day; and we treasured that memory. I have sweet memories of her as a friend, neighbor, and sister in Christ. My family is praying for hers.

“ She was my first cousin and we were inseparable when we were younger. Always at each others houses. She was a huge part of my childhood. I will miss hers. She could make me laugh at our craziness. Love you Christy. You have more of the family in Heaven with you. We'll watch over Bailey.
