“ How do you actually share a memory of such a special person as Clara. I'm so sorry for the loneliness that will follow her passing. The hurt never seems to go away but just think of the wonderful reunion she's having. That just makes you smile and it eases the pain.

“ If you were to look up amazing Christian lady, wife, mother, and friend in the dictionary there would be a picture of this precious lady right beside the definition. She always had a beautiful smile and she always tried to help everyone and to see the best in everybody. She was beautiful inside and out and I loved her so much. We will miss her so much here but all of Heaven rejoiced when she went through the gate ❤️. Praying for all of you that God gives you peace and strength. She won't be forgotten

“ Sweet Clara! As a child, I looked up to Clara as a role model. When she worked out of state, and visited old Cedar Fork and her family, I would hurry to sit in the pew right next to her. She always had a smile, and spoke such tender words. I always looked for her at Cedar Fork Homecoming, and last summer, once again, I got to tell her I loved her and how she meant so much to me. I will see her again! I am thankful for the life she lived, pointing friends and family to God.

“ Ms Clara has been a part of my life from the time I was born. She, along with other "Cedar Fork Saints" were an integral part of me knowing Jesus as my saviour. I have respected and admired her forever. She definitely walked the walk and talked the talk.

No one knows how it feels unless you came from a large family where there was lots of girls. Clara will always be remembered as "ONE OF THE ISBILL GIRLS" to that there is no age boundaries. From the time I was small I could tell where each of them sit in church at Cedar Fork. Always wearing a smile. Let memories remain with you as a comforter that GOD give to each of us.

I grew up and went to grade school with Clara and her brothers and sisters. The family was happy, kind and loving. I haven't seen any members of the family in years but want you to know I'm thinking of you and fondly remember you.
