“ I spent many enjoyable years off and on with Sue in different flea markets. She enjoyed being in and running flea markets as much as anyone could and will be extremely missed. She was fair, honest, and would go out of her way to help people. I think she had more friends than even she realized. We sometimes talked religion and i believe she had her heart in the right place. Looking forward to seeing her again someday in heaven!

“ Although Sue wasnt my real grandmother, she will always have a place as my Granny in my heart. We hit it off fom the moment Jacob introduced me to her. She was a wonderful woman and a fiesty one at that. She will forever hold a place in my heart.
