“ Clara Belle was my mother-in-law for 38 years and couldn't ask for one any better. I loved her just like my mom. She was the best mamaw that my children and my grandchildren could've ever ask for. She is in Heaven now having a great reunion with the one who died for her Jesus and her husband and all the other family members. She has no more pain I love you and cant wait to be home with you

“ Mamaw was always trying to feed everyone, it was always "get in the and get you something to eat". She loved everyone, never had a bad word to say about no one, a truly amazing and special woman. This world had lost an angel, or family has lost the the most important person our glue. Nothing will ever be quite right with out her. We love and miss you Mamaw. Until we meet again. I'll do my best to take care of Scott

Yes Angie, every Christmas when we came to visit.. We ate. She always said 'get in there and get you something to eat.' And always cooked for an army. I'm very sad that she didn't get to meet my little one. She would have loved her. ❤️
