“ Shelia I am so sorry to hear the sad news about Wayne. Wayne and you both have been so good to my son Jason since he moved across the street from you to Sweetwater. Every time we visited Jason and saw Wayne, he always waved or came over and talked to us. You both are wonderful people. I know it is very difficult for you and your family to lose him. I pray God will give you peace and the ability to go on, somehow, without him. Our hearts are broken for you, Shelia, for we know how close you and Wayne are. Never will we forget him. He left a great legacy.
