“ Joey, Annel, Matt & Larry each of you know how very much I feel about you. I am the last survivor of the family era, and uncle was much more to me., my giant of a hero and much more. At 12 years of age I was the first baby that he ever held in his arms. Uncle, served in two military wars, ww2 and the korean war. The first one I remember crying because of his departure to war., (Smiles, but on his leaving for the second time (Korea) I refused to let him go without me. We faught this one together, in part we shared wonderful times. I want you to know that your dad was a very proud man and there was never a time that he fail to mention you in our conversations. He loved you and without any doubt until the very end. May the spirit of our heavenly father be with you always.

If you need me call me.

*With my affection,
Cousin Eddie*
