“ I will always be grateful for the friendship our family had with her and her family while sharing a room at Woods Nursing Home with our Mother. She was not only Mama's friend and guardian but was almost like one of our family members and she will be sorely missed by all the Belk family. May she forever Rest In Peace!

“ The Gray family Christmas Eve potluck gatherings were not to be missed. If you happened to be a little later arriving, you could hear the festivities at the end of the driveway when you drove up. Polly and her sisters always had stories to tell about other family members, and they were hilarious. If you did not want something told, you best make sure none of the family knew your secret because it would travel through the family by phone or at one of these gatherings. I also remember my mom, Gena, and Polly getting on the phone and talking and laughing for an hour or so even when my mom was a resident in the nursing home. I have great memories of our family and what fun it was anytime we all got together. Polly was always so funny and so much fun. She will be missed.

“ Polly and Rankin were the best aunt and uncle anyone could have. They were always happy to see us walk in the door for a visit. Polly was the keeper of the Moree family tree. She had a notebook with everyone's information in there and even more stories that were not in the notebook. You will be missed, Polly.
