“ *Someone sent this to me, and all I can do is cry because I feel so helpless. I wish I could bring him back because he was so amazing and he taught me so many things. He was always deeply troubled and I told him how important he was as a person, but now he's gone and I wish it was all a bad dream.
Evan, you changed lives. You changed mine through your work.
Thank you and all of the love in my heart goes out to you and your family. I wish you all well in this time of grief.*

“ Ken, Alma and Angie, you are in mine and everyone elses deepest prayers. We all loved Cody and will miss him terribly. He was a great person, friend and cousin. I will never forget him and I hope that nobody else will either. He had a great personality and an even better way of making me always stop to talk to him no matter where we were. He will always always be missed.
We love you Cody. Your family will miss you! And never forget you. Thank you for all the smiles you brought to my face.

“ This is so sad. Everytime I think about it it breaks my heart. I didnt know Cody really well but I did go to school with him my whole life. This is so hard to know he passed at such a young age. I will miss him a lot. My prayers go out to his family and close friends.

“ I did not know Cody but I grew up with his father and it saddens me to think he is having to go through what he is going through. This could have been anyone of us with kids this age or any other age. We all need to hug our kids a little tighter today as I am sure Keith wishes he could. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of the Sackett family whom I knew as kids. May God Bless.

“ I would like to send out my deepest thoughts and prayers for Cody's friends and family. I didn't know him all that well but I saw him on a daily basis. We talked almost everyday as he was a regular at my job. He was a good guy with a kind heart and it's a shame we lost him at such a young age. My prayers are with you all as this is going to be a heart wrenching time for most of you. RIP Cody Evan Sackett you will be greatly missed by many.
