

Coleman Alexander McJunkins

November 10, 1993 - September 14, 2018

Coleman Alexander “Cole” McJunkins, age 24, of Greenback passed away suddenly on Friday, September 14, 2018. Cole was a member of Pine Grove Presbyterian Church, a graduate from Greenback High School in 2012, and received his Associate’s Degree in Business from Pelissippi State Community College. Cole was an avid golfer and talented musician.

Cole is preceded in death by his grandfather David Wayne Bryan. He is survived by his parents Rick and Angie of Greenback; little sister Ivy, nephew Ledger, brother in law Landon, all of Sweetwater. He also leaves behind his maternal grandmother, Brenda Bryan, also of Sweetwater; and his paternal grandparents, Bobby and Clarice McJunkins of Sweetwater. He is also survived by his aunt, Renee McJunkins of Sweetwater, Aunt and Uncle Amy and Rodney Bibee of Knoxville, and cousins Justin Wilson of Sweetwater, and Luke and Hannah Beth Bibee of Knoxville.

Anyone that was fortunate enough to know Cole immediately recognized him as someone that would do anything for a laugh, ended nearly every conversation with those he cared for with an “I love you,” and who considered his close friends to be brothers and sisters.

Family and friends will meet at Pine Grove Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Greenback on Wednesday, September 19, 2018 at 4:00 P.M. for graveside service and interment with Pastor Ron Sabo officiating. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to True Purpose Ministries, 2628 Morganton Road, Maryville, TN 37801. Kyker Funeral Homes in Sweetwater, TN is in charge of arrangements.
