

Cora Deanie Webb Brown

January 12, 1941 - April 2, 2023

Cora Deanie Webb Brown of Niota TN 1-12-1941 to 4-2-2023. Deanie passed peacefully into the gates of heaven on Sunday, April 2, 2023. At her granddaughter and special caregiver home, Kristen.

She worked and retired after 41 years from Niota School as the Cafeteria Manager. She was loved by all the students and staff. She was a member of the Union McMinn Baptist Church in Niota.

She loved all things baseball, especially her Cincinnati Reds and Pete Rose. She played softball for many years. After retirement, she enjoyed homeschooling her grandson Kevin, she worked in her garden and on her farm and also enjoyed bowling.

She is preceded in death by her sister, Louis Webb Cline, Father, Albert Webb, Mother, Beatrice Miller Webb and an infant grandson, Silas Brown.

Survivors include her sons, Allen (Janice) Brown, Alvin (Lana) Brown, and Donald Brown.

Her grandchildren, Kristen (Jeffrey) Humphrey, Kevin Brown, Savannah Brown and Josiah Brown.

2 very special great grandsons, Benjamin Jones and Lucas Humphrey.

A brother, Albert Lee (Alice) Webb, Sisters, Patricia Webb and Emma Mason

Several nieces and nephews.

There will be a graveside only service at 1:00P.M. on Thursday, April 6, 2023, at Union McMinn Baptist Church Cemetery in Niota with Bryan Coffey officiating. Music by Michael Wilson.

Pallbearers are: Benjamin Jones, Jeffrey Humphrey, Timothy Smith, Darrell Cook, Bill Newman, and Jon Brakebill.

A very special thanks to Amedisys Hospice nurses and staff for the excellent care they provided.

“ Deanie was my brother's second mom. They played ball together for many, many years. Darrell got to visit with her just a few hours before she passed. I was so glad, because he loved her so, so much. I know that Darrell would wish that people could see a light for Jesus in Deanie, and that her passing might bring them closer to God.

*I used to be one of those students who enjoyed seeing her every day
Loved her rolls.
Hope someone else has the recipe. Rest in peace.
She has no pain
We will see her again*
