David Wayne White, (Melly's Hunty), went home to Jesus on October 14, 2024.

Hunty loved his family fiercely and was a fierce and loyal friend. He never missed an opportunity to tell his family and friends that he loved them. He was honest, kind and caring.

He loved spending time with his children and taste testing his Melly's cooking. He enjoyed long drives in the the mountains and visits from his granddaughters. “ David will be missed terribly! I met him at Fat Hats and he always had a smile on his face no matter what! He was always brightening my day when he came in with his wife and girls. He just had that personality that would make you feel better!! I'm so sorry Melanie, Trinity and Katie! Heaven gained a wonderful soul and person with David.

“ I met David 5 years ago at Vanderbilt when my son was born and had open heart surgeries. I was fortunate enough to get to know him and his family. I think of you all often. To Melanie, I am hopeful you can get through this, I am so terribly sorry. David brought brightness to many dark days at a time when we needed it the most. Love to you all.
