“ Debbie and I were second cousins. My maternal grandmother was her aunt Vadra Ingram Dotson. One day when we were very young girls, Debbie came with her family to visit my grandparents. My grandma had a really good stash of stilettos and one pair of roller skates Debbie and I each put one skate on, and skated around that way for hours in my grandmother's basement. That day stuck in my memory. I'm so sorry Debbie was taken so young. But she's at rest with her mom and her Lord. Prayers for the family. Love Tammy Saffles
