“ I remember you always taking me on motorcycle rides from Alabama to Tennessee to get lottery tickets. I miss being little riding on your shoulders going into the PX I could just keep going words can't describe how much I miss you and how much I love you. These boys won't know anything but good that their grandpa has done. I was your little girl and always will be. You are the best dad that we could've asked for. Thank you for giving us a great life and great person to look up to. I love you forever and always

“ I remember when I first told my dad I wanted to enlist in the military and I listed some crazy jobs like EOD and Pararescue. Dad shut that down so quick but let’s be honest those jobs sound cool but definitely not made for my skill set. He told me “You can join the Air Force and no maintenance or high risk jobs” So I enlisted into the Air Force and now a Cyber SSGT. Dad was there for my big moments like my initial oath of enlistment and my NCO graduation even if he had to telework from my pink bunny gamer girl chair to be able to be there for me. I am sad that he won’t be there in person anymore to watch me progress in my military career. I did my first reenlistment ever after you passed and it was hard to do without my #1 supporter beside me. I have been so fortunate to have a supporting, caring, and loving father.

Hannah, your dad sent me a picture of him in the pink bunny chair. He initially sent me a picture of his work setup and when I saw it, I said please send me a selfie with you in the chair. I will send thru Roni.

“ My biggest memory with you Del is Roni asking me to make you deviled eggs and you'll love me forever. I never had a doubt about our friendship. We did love each other eggs or no eggs. I also remember taking that tic of your back. I took it off and showed it to you and you said you didn't need to see it lol. I will never forget your passing because God took you on my birthday showing me what a blessing it was to have a friend like you. It was short but so sweet.

He was the best son a mother could ask for he didn't have a selfish bone in his body. When ever I needed help he was there. He was one of a kind I still can't believe he's gone. He was loved by everyone that knew him. Love you son I know I will see you again until then I love you so much and miss you.
