

Delite Grigsby

July 16, 1925 - January 15, 2026

Delite Grigsby, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, passed away on January 15, 2026, at the age of 100, at Parkwest Medical Center in Knoxville, Tennessee. Her century of life was defined by love, resilience, and a quiet strength that touched everyone who knew her. Born on July 16, 1925, Delite embraced life with warmth and generosity, leaving a lasting mark on everyone she met. She was especially known for her selflessness and unwavering devotion to family—always putting loved ones first, checking in on friends, and offering kindness wherever it was needed.

A devoted member of Manley Baptist Church, Delite drew strength from her faith and lived her life guided by compassion and care for others. Her resilience and gentle spirit inspired those around her, and her legacy of love and dedication will be cherished by all who knew her.

Delite is survived by her son, James “Jim” Grigsby, and his wife, Susan Grigsby; her granddaughter, Caroline Grigsby; her grandson, Kyle Grigsby, and his wife, Kristen Grigsby; her great-grandchildren, Haven Grigsby and Beckett Grigsby; and her sister, Wanda Alexander, and her husband, David Alexander.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Elbert and Ethel Anderson; her husband, Lloyd Grigsby; her daughter, Rebecca Grigsby; and her siblings, Lawrence Anderson, Donald Anderson, Hulah Gibson, Hazel Dennis, Billy Anderson, and Audry Pedigo.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to Donna Knight for her many years of faithful friendship and support, and to Tom Kaylor for his devoted care and dedication to the elderly.

A private, family graveside service will be held on Monday, January 19, 2026, at Westview Cemetery in Sweetwater, Tennessee.

Her life was long, her love was generous, and her memory will forever remain a blessing.
